

Session #5 Weekly Devotional: Day 1

Read 1 Corinthians 10:23-33

What biblical principles should inform my decisions? Who can help me better understand what God's Word says about this decision? Make sure you are not the only one who holds to your interpretation.

F = Focus in your journal by writing the date and the Scripture you're studying. After you've read the passage a few times, focus on a verse or two that stands out to you and then write out those verses in your journal.

I = Investigate the context around today's Scripture reading. To whom was this written? Why? How does this passage fit with what comes before and after it? What is the Holy Spirit communicating through this text? Feel free to use Bible study tools for commentary: Bible Study Tools, or Easy English Bible.

R = Respond to the text to make it applicable for your own life. What is God saying to you personally through this passage? How can you apply what you've read?

E = Engage God. This can either be a short prayer or an action that you can take that day after reading the text. Is there a command to follow in the text? How are you different because of what you've learned?

Session #5 Weekly Devotional: Day 2

Read Proverbs 18

Ask a lot of questions. Don't fall prey to "wishful thinking" or let your emotions get the best of you. Remember that there are two sides to every story.

Session #5 Weekly Devotional: Day 3

Read Proverbs 19

Beware of the "once in a lifetime" deal and the lure of instant gratification. Don't let the fear of missing out drive your decision (FOMO). When in doubt, leave it out.

F = Focus in your journal by writing the date and the Scripture you're studying. After you've read the passage a few times, focus on a verse or two that stands out to you and then write out those verses in your journal.

Session #5 Weekly Devotional: Day 4

Read Proverbs 26

How should past experiences inform my decisions? Look for patterns of behavior – “triggers.” Understand how your family background might affect your thinking. Learn from your mistakes!
